Bullying and Cruel Words

A joke someone else forgot five minutes later might replay in your head for years.
Comments. Rumors. Online attacks.

And sometimes the worst part isn't strangers - it's people you thought were friends.
But here's something important: Hurt people ... hurt people.

Most cruelty comes from someone dealing with their own pain and their words say more about them than about you.

Ephesians 4:29 says, Let no corrupting talk come out of your mouths, but only such as is good for building up,
God's plan for words is healing, not harm.

And if you've been bullied, know this: Their cruelty is not your identity.
And if you've ever joined in mocking someone else, you know how easy it is to pile on.
But you can break that cycle.

One encouraging word can undo damage others cause.

So What Now? Be the person who lifts people. Don't pass along pain. Stop it with you.

Ministry Highlight - this week - Baxter Retirement Devotional

Each Wednesday at 1:30pm, a group of men & their wives gather to lead a time of worship at the Baxter Retirement Home. The service includes congregational singing, prayer, a short devotional lesson, and concludes with additional songs & prayer. The men rotate responsibilities in leading.

This ministry is a great encouragement to the residents, who truly enjoy and look forward to the weekly visits.

For more information on how to get involved contact David Pitchford.
