It's the time of apple picking, the leaves changing, and pumpkin spice everything. It's the fall! The fall reminds us that the work of sowing and reaping takes time. Paul writes in Galatians 6:9, "Let us not grow weary of doing good, for in due season we will reap, if we do not give up." Whether it's putting in work on a farm, your garden at home, or working on other projects in life—endurance can be challenging.

Sometimes it feels like the good you do isn't noticed, or that your efforts don't matter. But God promises that the harvest will come—maybe not tomorrow, but in His perfect timing. Keep planting kindness, keep sowing faith, and the reward will follow. Keep your eyes open for the weary people around you and remind them to keep going. And if you're weary, here's your reminder, don't give up!
