We're glad you are here!

Step In - You Belong Here

Every congregation is made stronger when each person finds their place to serve. Whether it's greeting at the door, teaching a class, helping with meals, visiting the sick, or simply showing kindness to someone who needs it - every act of service matters.

Getting involved isn't about filling spots or meeting quotas. It's about connection.

When you serve, you build friendships, deepen your faith, and help others see Christ through your actions. Scripture reminds us that "each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering God's grace in its various forms" (1 Peter 4:10).

Maybe you're unsure where you fit - that's okay! Try something new. You might discover a gift you didn't know you had or find unexpected joy in a small task that makes a big difference.

Our goal isn't to do more work, but to grow closer together as we serve the Lord side by side. There's a place for you here - and your presence truly matters.

Blessings, Chris

James 3:18 says, "A harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace." Every day we make the choice of what kind of seed we'll scatter, will it be strife and bitterness, or will it be peace and reconciliation? I know too many people who are surprised when things go wrong in their lives when relationships are strained or when things don't go their way when they've lived lives planting seeds of strife and bitterness.

Just like a farmer cannot expect corn from planting weeds, we cannot expect peace if we are sowing anger. But when God's people sow peace, the fruit it produces is righteousness, and righteousness blesses everyone around us. I want to encourage you to take a chance this week to be their peacemaker in your home, in your workplace, or in your community. Sow peace and watch God produce righteousness.
