Ephesians 4:1-6

Kindness

Kindness doesn't cost much.
But it changes everything.
A kind word. A thoughtful gesture.
A gentle response instead of a harsh one.
Kindness isn't weakness - it's controlled strength.
It's choosing to treat someone with dignity,
even when they don't treat you that way.
And in a culture where sarcasm gets laughs and criticism spreads quickly, kindness stands out.
It disarms anger. It softens tension.
It opens doors for real conversations.
The Fruit of the Spirit includes kindness
because it reflects the heart of God.
And God doesn't deal with us harshly.
He deals with us graciously.
Imagine if homes were marked by kindness.
Workplaces shaped by kindness.
Social media influenced by kindness.
That's not naive. That's powerful.
Kindness is often the difference between pushing someone away... and drawing them closer.

2027 Theme NO OTHER GODS 1 Kings 8:23
Teach Me to Pray

This is a non-competitive event. All Ages-Youth to Adult

Purpose: To teach the importance of daily prayer, keeping a prayer journal, and methods with which to accomplish it.

Requirements: Participants must participate in studying Teach Me to Pray, written by Phil Sanders, Greg Tidwell, and Matt Guy. This is a seven-chapter study with questions. This can be done in a classroom setting, homeschool, or as a family group. Once the study has been completed, the participant uses the journal portion of the study to keep a month-long prayer journal.

See Connita Martin if you would like to participate for 2026-2027
