Heaven is a Place of Justice

Life isn't fair. Some wounds never get closure. Some evils seem unanswered.

Some people get away with things that break your heart.

But Heaven promises this: God Sees. God Knows. God will make it right.

In Revelation 20:12 John describes the final judgment. Books are opened.

Every deed is brought to light.

For the believer, this judgment is not a threat - it's a promise of justice. It means abusers don't win. It means corrupt systems don't get the last word. It means no evil escapes God's sight.

Heaven isn't just a place of joy - it's a place where every wrong is undone and every tear is redeemed.

So What Now? Instead of seeking revenge, trust God with the justice He promises.
