The Prodigal Son There's a Way Home

Jesus told of a young man who demanded his inheritance, left home, and wasted everything in reckless living.

Eventually, Luke 15 tells us, "he came to himself."

He decided to return home and confess, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you."

But while the son was still a long way off, his father saw him, felt compassion, ran to him, embraced him, and welcomed him home.

What a beautiful picture of God's willingness to forgive!

Sin can take us farther from God than we ever intended to go. But repentance turns our hearts toward home.

The father told his servants, "Let us eat and celebrate. For this my son was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found."

Maybe you've wandered farther from God than you ever imagined.

Jesus' message is simple: turn around. The road home is still open.
