The 5th of the 10 commandments is "Honor your father and your mother..." Exodus 20:12

Respect is rare. Everyone demands it; few show it. But honoring your parents isn't optional - it's commanded.

Honoring doesn't always mean agreeing. It means showing gratitude, patience, and humility. You may think your parents don't "get it," but they've walked roads you haven't yet seen.

One teen said, "I realized my dad wasn't perfect — but he never quit on me." That's worth respect.

Ephesians 6:2-3 says, "Honor your father and mother." This is the first commandment with a promise: 3

If you honor your father and mother, "things will go well for you, and you will have a long life on the earth." God ties blessings to obedience. This week, honor your parents with your tone, time, and attitude. It's not just about them - it's about honoring the God who placed them in your life
