Elders, Deacons & Preachers Meeting
Monday, July 7th at 7pm

There are many ways you can grow in your spiritual walk with God, but practicing the spiritual discipline of solitude can be incredibly rewarding. We live in such a noisy world, where everyone and everything is fighting for our attention and vying for our time. Whether you're an extrovert or an introvert, it's important to get away from the noise of the world in order to calm your soul and reconnect to God alone.

David writes about this idea of being in God's presence in Psalm 23:1-3 saying, "The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. 2 He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. 3 He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake." The idea of following God and allowing Him to "restore" your soul is something many of us would do well to practice. But how do you do it? Find a quiet place, turn off your phone, and read or pray to God. Take sometime today to shut out the noise and open your heart to the Lord.
