More and More

You ever notice how we're always chasing "more"? More success, more money, more recognition. But in 1 Thessalonians 4, Paul talks about a different kind of "more." He says, "Do this more and more" but he's talking about living in a way that pleases God.

That's interesting. Because it means faith isn't a one-time decision, it's a daily direction.

It's growth. It's progress.

Not perfection... progress.

So maybe the question isn't, "Am I good enough?" Maybe it's, "Am I growing?"

Am I becoming more patient?

More self-controlled?

More forgiving when it's hard?

More faithful when no one is watching?

God isn't asking you to be flawless overnight.

He's asking you to keep moving forward

- more and more.

Even small steps count. Stay with it.

Keep in Prayer
