Peace

We live in a loud world.

Notifications. Opinions. Conflict.

Breaking news every hour.

Peace almost feels rare. But peace is one of the Fruit of the Spirit. Not the absence of trouble - but calm in the middle of it.

Peace is what allows you to pause before reacting.

It's what helps you speak gently instead of sharply. It's what steadies your breathing when everything feels chaotic.

God's peace doesn't mean everything around you is fixed. It means your heart isn't ruled by fear. And that's powerful. Because fear drives a lot of decisions. Fear ruins conversations. Fear fractures relationships.

But peace... peace protects them.

If you want to know whether you're walking closely with God, ask yourself this: Are you easily rattled?

Or are you learning how to rest - even when life isn't perfect?

MHYG Summer Intern & Mentor

This summer we are excited to welcome two outstanding young adults who will be working with our youth and families from May 27 through August 5.

Our summer intern is Christian Walters from Durant, Oklahoma. Christian will be a Junior this fall at Oklahoma Christian University, majoring in Bible and Psychology.

Joining him as our summer mentor is Lily Saylor from Choctaw, Oklahoma. Lily will be a Senior at Oklahoma Christian University and is majoring in Engineering.

Many of our youth already had the opportunity to meet Christian and Lily during our recent trip to Tulsa and are very excited about them coming this summer. I am excited as well, as they have already proven to be a positive influence and encouragement to our young people.

At this time, we are still in need of summer housing arrangements for them. If you have questions, suggestions, or would be willing to help provide housing during part or all of the summer, please contact Chris as soon as possible.

Congratulations!
 We rejoice that Grady McAninch was baptized May 2nd. His parents are Trevor & Cira McAninch - information is in Lightpost.
