Today's Lessons

Anchored in Corinth
I Corinthians 6:9-11

We live in an age where any information is at our fingertips. Want to know the weather, ask your smart home device while you're making coffee. Want to what day of the week Christmas is this year, just ask Siri on your phone on your way to work. It's Sunday by the way. Want to know the business hours for that local restaurant, just google it. But as readily available as knowledge is in today's world, wisdom seems to be rarer than ever before.

Godly wisdom isn't something that's displayed in how much you know OR in how quickly you can find the right information. Rather, godly wisdom is shown through godly living. James 3:13 says, "13 Who among you is wise and understanding? Let him show by his good behavior his deeds in the gentleness of wisdom." James explains that we ought to show our wisdom by our godly behavior. Are you living life according to God's wisdom or your own? God's wisdom is: pure, peace-loving, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial, and free of hypocrisy. If you are not living this way, you are not practicing the wisdom of God
