Today's Lessons

AM: The Great Reversal-

Majesty to Manger

Isaiah 9:6-7

PM: Paul in a World Full of Holidays

Acts 17:16-17

Have you said or thought today, "I'm just so tired!" The 4th of the 10 commandments is "Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy." Exodus 20:8 During Old Testament times, God commanded His people to rest on the last day of the week.

So how about you? When was the last time you truly rested - not just slept in, but recharged your soul? Teens are the busiest generation ever. School, work, sports, social life - but spiritual rest is rare. God didn't command rest to slow us down but to save us from burnout. Imagine running your phone nonstop without charging it. Eventually, it dies. So does your spirit when you never stop for worship or reflection. Jesus said, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath" (Mark 2:27). God designed rest for your good. So, set aside a day - or even a few hours - to recharge with God. Go to worship. Pray. Turn off the noise. Let God fill the space you've been too busy to give Him.
