Freedom is a beautiful thing. We all ought to thank the Lord daily that we live in the nation that we do. But with freedom comes the opportunity to do and live in a way that isn't pleasing to the Lord. Yes, we have the law to protect our citizens, but there are all sorts of things that are legal to do, but would not please God. In the very first consequence of sin from Genesis 3, the serpent is punished and the very first prophecy of Christ is given. "He shall bruise you on the head, And you shall bruise Him on the heel." vs. 15

While each one of us fight temptation and selfishness daily, there was a deeper, more important battle which took place in which a Man was hurt (his heel bruised) and the serpent was destroyed (head crushed). When we use our freedom to sin, we become enslaved to sin and are trapped. But God had a plan to bring humanity back to Him. But to accomplish that plan, Satan (along with sin and death) had to be defeated. The question for you is, will you use your freedom to follow your own desires, or give up your freedom to experience God's victory over sin and death?
