Self-Control

Self-control might be the most practical Fruit of the Spirit. Because it shows up everywhere.

In what we say. In what we watch.

In what we eat. In how we respond when we're angry. Self-control is choosing long-term good over short-term impulse. And that's hard.

Our culture says, "If you feel it, express it."

But self-control says, "Pause." It puts boundaries around emotions. It keeps desires from becoming dictators.

God's Spirit doesn't remove temptation - but He strengthens discipline. And discipline leads to freedom.

Without self-control, we become slaves to habits, reactions, and urges.

With it, we become steady. Predictable in the best way. Safe for others to trust.

Self-control isn't restrictive. It's protective.

*Please call the office with Prayer List Updates.

Maddox Trainor is doing well and his family would like to thank everyone for their prayers during his illness and for continued prayers for good results when he returns for check-ups.

There will be a tea party luncheon in Building B on Saturday, July 25th, 11:00-1:00. This is for all girls who attend here and their mother and grandmother(s). Any "girls" who are alumni of Mrs. Sandra's tea parties may have a little girl(s) of their own by now, and are encouraged to bring them as well.

The theme is "An Old Fashioned Tea Party" and we would like for each guest to wear your favorite apron. Please see or text Sandra Pitchford by July 1st so we can get a head count. 870-405-1373

What's the Difference?...

...Between the atheist who supports no church and a member who will not support the one to which he belongs? (I Corinthians 16:20)
...Between those who do not believe in Bible classes, and those who never attend them? (Hebrews 5:14; 10:25)
...Between the man of the world, and a person in the church who lives like a man of the world? (Romans 2:1-3, 21:23)
...Between the man who can read and won't and the man who can't read (his Bible)? (Revelation 1:3)

"... I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also." I Corinthians 14:15b

As we sing, do we understand what we are teaching?
