A Quiet Life

We live in a loud world. Everyone's posting, reacting, commenting—trying to be seen and heard. It can feel like, if you're not loud, you're falling behind. But 1 Thessalonians 4 gives a different goal: "Aspire to live quietly." That doesn't mean doing nothing. It means living with purpose...without needing attention. Being steady, Faithful. Grounded. There's something powerful about a life that isn't chasing noise. A life focused on what truly matters—faith, family, and character. Quiet doesn't mean weak. It means controlled. It means intentional. So maybe the goal isn't to be the loudest voice. Maybe it's to be the most consistent.
