Do you have a good memory? Or would you say that you're a particularly wise person? Israeli-born psychologist, Daniel Kahneman, taught the world about the irrational mind and the fallibility of memory. According to Kahneman, our memories are not accurate to the truth of the events. Instead, we remember a distorted version of the truth. Apparently, each time you recall a memory from the past, you accidentally alter it in some way. But surely that doesn't influence the way we understand things or make decisions...

Proverbs 3:5 says, "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own understanding." It can be easy to trust in our own understanding. I don't know about you, but I don't have all the answers in life. And if I had to rely on only what I know, I'd be in trouble. Thank God, that instead of leaning on my own flawed memory and wisdom, I can lean on Him for help.
